POST NEWS

The Pancake breakfast held March 3rd was well attended even with the snow and another organization in town holding a breakfast on the same day.

The St. Patrick's parade held the same afternoon was a little chilly and windy but our color guard unit toughed it out and represented our Post in fine fashion.

Please check the Upcoming Events section of this letter. There have been some date changes and additions from the last newsletter.

As an additional fundraiser at the recent breakfast we asked several merchants in town to sponsor a table. For a reasonable fee they were able to have their names displayed on the individual tables and to make available brochures or menus from their establishments. Several businesses responded to this offer, they are listed below. We encourage our members to support these people that supported us.
